

PRESS RELEASE

Manfred Stanek resigns from the Greiner AG Executive Board at his own request

- » The Chief Operating Officer (COO) of Greiner AG will be leaving the company at the end of the year at his own request to take on a new professional challenge
- » Manfred Stanek was with Greiner for eight years – six of them as CEO of the Greiner Packaging division and almost two years as a member of the Executive Board of Greiner AG
- » The Supervisory Board would like to thank him for his successful collaboration and his substantial contribution to the further development of the company

Vienna/Kremsmünster, September 25, 2024 – Manfred Stanek, Chief Operating Officer (COO) of Greiner AG, has asked the Supervisory Board of Greiner AG to terminate his contract by mutual agreement. The Supervisory Board has complied with this request. Manfred Stanek will thus leave the company at the end of the year to take up a new position outside the Greiner Group.

Dominik Greiner, Chairman of the Supervisory Board of Greiner AG, thanks Manfred Stanek for his commitment and achievements during his many years of service to the company. “Greiner has undergone extraordinary developments in recent years. Manfred Stanek has significantly contributed to these developments, especially as CEO of Greiner Packaging for many years. As a member of the board of Greiner AG, he has also set the course for a successful future. We therefore deeply regret his decision to leave the Group and wish him all the best for the future – both professionally and privately!”

Manfred Stanek joined the plastics and foam company Greiner in 2016 and has shaped the Greiner Packaging division as Chief Executive Officer (CEO) for more than six years like no other. Under his leadership, the packaging division has consistently delivered strong economic performance over the years – despite all the crises. Manfred Stanek has positioned Greiner Packaging as a stable and state-of-the-art player in the European packaging market. As COO of Greiner AG, he has also initiated critical personnel and transformative steps across all divisions since the start of 2023. He was also responsible for managing the Greiner Bio-One medical devices division on an interim basis for around six months in 2023.

“For me, an eventful and successful chapter at Greiner will soon be coming to an end. I think we have achieved a lot together and can be proud of where we are today as a company. However, after more than eight years of intensive work, I am also convinced that the time has come for new impulses. I would like to express my sincere thanks to the owner family, the entire management team and all employees for the trust they have placed in me,” said Manfred Stanek, COO of Greiner AG.

The position of Chief Operating Officer (COO) of Greiner AG is to be filled as soon as possible. The search for a successor has already begun.

Photo:

Caption: Manfred Stanek, COO of Greiner AG, will leave the company at the end of 2024.

Photo credit: Silvia Wittmann

Further images can be found in the download area. The images are available for publication free of charge as part of editorial reporting. The 2023 annual report is available at the following link: <https://www.greiner.com/bericht/2023>

About Greiner

Greiner, based in Kremsmünster (Austria), is one of the world's leading companies for plastic and foam solutions. With its three operating divisions Greiner Packaging, NEVEON, and Greiner Bio-One, the company is at home in a wide range of industrial sectors. Established in 1868, the group of companies is currently one of the leading foam producers and plastics processors for the packaging, mattress, furniture and sports industries, for the mobility sector as well as for medical technology and the pharmaceutical sector. Greiner generated sales of EUR 2.12 billion in the 2023 financial year and employed over 10,500 employees at 118 locations in 33 countries. The Management Board consists of CEO Saori Dubourg (Chief Executive Officer), CFO Hannes Moser (Chief Financial Officer) and COO Manfred Stanek (Chief Operating Officer). www.greiner.com

Media contact

Greiner AG
Gerti Wallner, Media Spokesperson
Mobile: + 43 664 88598617
Email: presse@greiner.com